The chairman, in reply to a question, At a "representative meeting " consisting of stated that in the event of the proposal being one man from each mill in Blackburn, it was accepted, the £300,000 would be raised on the resolved "That a general system of emigration guarantee of the Imperial Government, be started throughout the whole of the cotton Eventually snother amendment was carried. Dumufacturing districts in the spinning departoff that are willing to go to some other country where workmen are wanted." STRANGE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE. -An extraordinary attempt at suicids was made in the neighbourhood of Bristol. A couple of lovers were strolling in Duchess's Woods, when, during a brief separations, the young man ans-pended bimself by his handkerchief from the branch of a tree. With great pourage and presence of mind, his sweetheart literally bit it is doubtful if her interposition was in time to save her lover's life. He was quite insensible whon "out down," and had not recovered consciousness when taken to the Infirmany, whither be was conveyed immediately on the extraordinary occurrence being made known in the neighbourhood. The young man is a clerk, but he has for some time been out of a situation, and this circumstance is believed to have somewhat affected his mind.

DAN WEBSTHE'S GENEROSITY .- "Darnel Webster," remarked old Colonel Gumpey, as he trimmed a quid of niggorbead, and fastaned it securely between two decayed teeth in the left side of his mouth, "Darnel Webster was a great man. He had a kinder careless way like. that kept him from gettin' rich. He never seemed to think what things cost. I was a comin' up in the Hudsom river along with him once, and in the mornin' Darnel Webster and me was washin our faces and slickin' our ha in the cabin, and be took out a touth-brush around, so I barrowed his n. And after I used it I handed it back to him, and what do you think? Why, Darnel Wobster just slung that tooth brush into the river, and I spose next day he went and bought him a new one. That's all he carel about money. There min't no such men as Darnel Webster living now."

The old Moravians were strong in brotherly ove; and though busbands and wives might love such other, they were not allowed to choose for themselves; each match was believed to be the result of a direct and specially divine appointment. A brother of the society wishing From the same return we take the following from the list of the marriageable sisters; pickto marry, laid his wish before the society, who, the lot was east. If favourable, the parties generally accepted the decision, but the sister so choosen had a right to refuse if she disliked it very much; the brother might, bowever, have the lot tried again after a lapse of time. Persons were sometimes married who had never seen each other, as brothers on distant missions often wrote to the society for wives, stating qualifications, and they cheerfully accepted such as were sent to them. It is related that one brother, a missionary; being left a widower, wrote to the conference to find him another
